MARYVILLE COLLEGE BULLETIN

Published by Maryville College, Maryville, Tennessee

Ralph Waldo Lloyd, President

Vol. XLVI April, 1948 No. 9

Published quarterly by Maryville College. Entered May 24, 1904, at Maryville, Tennessee, as second-class mail matter. Acceptance for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Section 1103, Act of October 3, 1917, authorized February 10, 1919.

Dear Friends:

An alumni bulletin is pretty much a "family" affair—and properly so. Most of its contents concern matters of special interest to our own college people But it is a world-wide family inescapably concerned with world-wide events. Those who write and those who read these pages are keenly aware of the ominous possibilities in the days ahead. Yet in a very real sense the gravity of the times accents the significance of the very things about which we write and read.

Maryville's Essential Service

What could be more convincing evidence of the importance of Christian higher education than the tragic results of secular effieiency seen all over the world? What could make clearer the call to strengthen the foundations and facilities of the Christian college than the immense growth of state and other secular colleges? When has Maryville's ministry been so essential?

An Organized Opportunity

The way a college serves is to gather students and make training available to them. It cannot really educate them. It is but "an organized opportunity for self-education." Over the years it organizes faculty, curriculum, students, library, buildings, emphases, procedures. In this process 1947-1948 has been a good year, with the student body held down to workable size even though the largest thus far; with the new curriculum and Special Studies well under way; with an enlarged faculty; with remakably good work and tone in spite of no chapel, no fine arts quarters, crowded space, and mounting costs. But the challenge is upon us to enlarge the opportunities offered. All domitory space for girls next year has been engaged since February. Laboratories overflow. The hundreds of students studying fine arts have no place of their own. Daily chapel services continue in the gymnasium and vespers in the library.

The Building Campaign

There are several articles in this Bulletin concerning plans to secure the additional funds needed for our four-fold building program—the Chapel, the Fine Arts Center, a new Women's Dormitory, and an additional Science Building. Each of these four projects is of major importance. A Maryville alumnus and his wife have provided funds for the Fine Arts Center, as reported in a special article. A substantial beginning has been made toward the amount needed for the dormitory by individuals and organizations of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Miss Clemmie J. Henry is leading in the presentation of this cause to the DAR and other friends. Other interested persons will be asked to provide the science building.

The Chapel

The funds in addition to insurance and gifts now in hand necessary for rebuilding the Chapel will be sought among alumni everywhere and among the people of Maryville, Blount County, and Knoxville. This will constitute the largest and most urgent appeal ever made to our alumni. May I urge upon every one the fullest possible participation in giving and enlisting others to give. The new chapel will be named for Dr. Samuel Tyndale Wilson, the fifth president, who obtained the funds for and managed the building of the Elizabeth R. Voorhees Chapel. I have reported details in a separate article.

Alumni Clubs

We at the College count it good progress that there is strong interest among alumni throughout the country in forming Maryville College Clubs. They can be effective means of fellowship and service. Maryville has not done as much in this direction as have most strong colleges. In this movement are new possibilities for Maryville College alumni to do things together.

Hearty good wishes to all of you.
Sincerely,

Ralph Waldo Lloyd

Chapel Campaign Plans Announced

Alumni and Local Friends Pledge Their Support

The Directors' Committee on Administration on April 6 made some very important decisions in connection with the rebuilding of the Maryville College chapel.

The first decision, one of great interest to alumni, is that the new chapel will be named for Dr. Samuel Tyndale Wilson, president of the College from 1901 to 1930 and connected with the institution for 65 years as student, professor, dean, president and president emeritus.

A second decision was that funds, in addition to those received from insurance on the old chapel and gifts already made, will be sought from the people of Maryville, Blount County, and Knoxville, and from Maryville College alumni. Alumni in the local communities will take part in the campaign as part of the communities rather than as part of the alumni association. It is estimated that to build a modern fire-proof chapel to seat twelve hundred and to provide facilities for drama fully equipped will require $300,000 in addition to the money in hand.

The third important decision made on April 6 was that intensive campaigns for funds will be conducted in Maryville and Blount County during September and October of this year and in Knoxville during November. Committees to plan these campaigns are now being formed.

The fourth decision was that the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President of the College, and the President and Executive Secretary of the Alumni Association were authorized to appoint a national alumni campaign committee, subject to approval of the Executive Committee of the Alumni Association. This Committee is now being formed and will be announced as quickly as possible.

New Chapel To Be Named In Memory of Dr. Wilson, Beloved College President

The Directors of the College have made a very important decision about the new chapel. The decision is this: the name will be The Samuel Tyndale Wilson Chapel.

This will bring great satisfaction to all alumni who knew Dr. Wilson during his sixty-five years of connection with the College as student, professor, dean, president, and president emeritus. And to younger alumni also, who have not had the privilege of knowing him, it will seem a most appropriate decision, for no one, unless it be the founder himself, has had so much to do with the history and development of Maryville College as did Dr. Wilson. And nothing was quite so important to him as was the religious work of the College that centered and will continue to center in the chapel.

Some history and explanation are necesary, however, to make clear the basis for the change in the name.

In 1905 Mr. Ralph Voorhees and his wife Elizabeth R. Voorhees, of New Jersey, gave Maryville College $100,000 on the annuity plan. Of this $15,000 was set aside with their permission for a chapel. Later Mrs. Voorhees added $10,000 and other friends added $9,000. It is almost unbelievable, but true, that the Elizabeth R. Voorhees Chapel was built in 1906 for $34,000.

The building rendered an invaluable service for forty-one years and then came the tragic fire that destroyed it on March 26, 1947. The College had hoped that it would continue to serve indefinitely. Distant plans had been in mind, however, to build a larger and somewhat more "churchly" companion chapel and name it for Dr. Wilson, using the Elizabeth R. Voorhees Chapel for the more general purposes of an auditorium. After the fire that possibility seemed distant indeed in view of the amount of money required under modern conditions for large fire-proof buildings.

In view of the relatively small proportion of the Voorhees money invested in the old chapel (the other $85,000 is in the endowment), in view of the long period through which the memorial feature was continued, and in view of the fact that there was no requirement or commitment in the matter, the officers of the College and the Voorhees heirs talked over the appropriateness of naming the new chapel for Dr. Wilson.

There was hearty and unanimous agreement by all concerned. The Voorhees family have graciously entered into the plan to name the new chapel The Samuel Tyndale Wilson Chapel and to place in it a marker giving the history of Elizabeth R. Voorhees Chapel and setting up a permanent memorial as part of the new chapel. Thus, it is believed, there will be accomplished fittingly and effectively in one new and enlarged chapel building the memorials formerly contemplated for two buildings.

—Ralph W. Lloyd

THE LATE SAMUEL TYNDALE WILSON,
FIFTH PRESIDENT OF MARYVILLE COLLEGE

ALPHA GAMMA SIGMA

The constitution of Alpha Gamma Sigma, local scholarship honor society, permits the election of ten per cent of the number of persons graduating with a liberal arts degree in each class provided there are that many eligibles. The prospect is that there will be 108 such graduates in the class of 1948; accordingly eleven have been elected from a larger list of eligibles.

The scholarship requirement is a point-hour ratio of 6.5 or above.

Two were elected from the group of December graduates: Harold M. Russell, now in Princeton Seminary, and Thomas Horst, now in McCormick Seminary.

Nine others have been elected since the beginning of the current semester: Esther Cornelius, of Pittsburgh, Penna.; Margaret Howell, of Maryville; Scott McClure, of Lebanon, Ohio; Carl Murray, of Maryville; Loretta Nunn, of Mt. Vernon, Missouri; Mildred Orr, of Maryville; Anne Sakaizawa, of Barrington, Illinois; Dorothy Vawter, of Maryville; and Thomas Wheeler of Peekskill, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen A. Lloyd Donors of Fine Arts Center

The gift of a Fine Arts Center, to replace and extend the fine arts facilities which were lost in the chapel fire, was announced last spring. The two donors asked that for the time being they be permitted to remain anonymous.

At the Founders Day exercises last October the first public announcement of their identity was made and released to the press. Now it is appropriate that the first Maryville College publication to carry their names as the donors should be an alumni publication because one of the donors is an alumnus.

They are Mr. and Mrs. Glen A. Lloyd, of Chicago. The Fine Arts Center is to be a memorial to Ann Baldwin Lloyd, their daughter who died suddenly, while still less than three months of age, on March 27, 1947, the day after the chapel burned.

Glen A. Lloyd, a brother of President Ralph W. Lloyd of the College, is an attorney with offices at 135 South LaSalle Street, Chicago. He is a graduate of Maryville in the Class of 1918 and of the Law School of the University of Chicago. His wife, Marion Musser Lloyd, is a graduate of Vassar College but is much interested in the work Maryville College is doing.

Detailed plans of the Fine Arts Center are not yet completed because decision as to the date to begin building is awaiting more stable construction conditions. But it is to provide facilities for the teaching of music and art, and will be modern in design and function. The estimated cost is $300,000. The Fine Arts Center and the new chapel will be separate units, although the ground floor of the chapel will contain quarters for drama and perhaps for large musical group rehearsals.

In providing the funds required for this Fine Arts Center, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd become the donors of the largest single gift ever received by Maryville College. It is a gift of love which will increase the quality and the scope of the College's service and will be a beautiful and permanently useful memorial.

Alumni Organize Chapters Throughout the Country

Before World War II considerable progress had been made in organizing Maryville College clubs in different parts of the United States. The oldest continuing organization is the Atlantic Highlanders in the Philadelphia, New York and Washington area. Others came into being in Los Angeles, Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Chattanooga, and elsewhere. Like other organizations of this kind, most of the Maryville College clubs ceased to be active during the war. The Atlantic Highlanders was the only one which continued to meet.

Recently the Executive Committee of the Alumni Association voted to encourage the developing of Maryville College clubs wherever practicable. These can be for Maryville, as similar clubs are for many American colleges, a means of fellowship for Maryville College graduates and former students in the various areas, and a means for advancing the interests of the College throughout the United States.

At the present time alumni in a number of Southern cities are planning organizational meetings in connection with a tour by the College Choir, April 20 to 23. Meetings are scheduled for Chattanooga, Birmingham, Montgomery, and Atlanta. The Atlantic Highlanders met in Philadelphia April 16, and plans are afoot to form other organizations also in the East. Western Pennsylvania alumni are meeting in Pittsburgh, April 20. Chicago alumni are planning a meeting sometime in May and plans are also being made in Cincinnati, Louisville, Cleveland, Detroit, and Hickory, N. C.

There will be a Maryville College breakfast in connection with the Presbyterian General Assembly in Seattle on May 29, and present plans call for President Lloyd to be in San Francisco and Los Angeles for alumni meetings following General Assembly.

HERE'S THAT QUESTIONNAIRE AGAIN

This is only the third appeal for all Alumni to return their questionnaires to the Alumni Office. Remember? They are those long, yellow blanks with lots of questions on them. If you still have not received one or have lost yours, please ask for another. We want one from every graduate and former student.

1948 A Cappella Choir

Choir Makes Extended Spring Tour

The College A Cappella Choir is making a tour of southern cities April 20-24, appearing in Chattanooga, Birmingham, Montgomery, and Atlanta in evening concerts. Radio programs have been arranged in three of the cities as well as some high school appearances.

Two 33-passenger buses will be used to transport the group of approximately 65 persons. The Choir will carry with them their vestments in specially constructed cabinets and folding "risers" to be used for proper arrangement of the group while singing. Dean McClelland, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Pratt and Mrs. Harter are accompanying the Choir on its trip.

The local itinerary this spring includes appearances at the Second Presbyterian, Graystone and Second Methodist Churches of Knoxville, at Knoxville College, at Oak Ridge and at Loudon.

The Choir is directed by Mr. Harry H. Harter, Assistant Professor of Music in the Division of Fine Arts of the College. The performance of the Choir continues the splendid record of previous years. Not only does it contribute greatly to the spirit and effectiveness of the campus program, but judging from the enthusiastic reports received, it represents the College as a worthy emissary of culture and goodwill in its off-campus appearances.

The Latest Word . . .

From latest reports, the choir trip was a noted success. The choir's program of sacred choral music was presented to more than 2000 listeners, not including three radio audiences. As a result, it is felt that Maryville College has many new friends.

Alumni clubs were organized in Chattanooga, Birmingham, and Atlanta, officers were elected, and future plans were discussed. At the same time Alumni were brought up-to-date on the latest campus events, and many acquaintances were renewed. Eight hundred miles were well-covered and the choir and representatives returned tired but happy.

Record Crowd Turns Out For Atlantic Highlander Meeting In Philadelphia on April 16

The Atlantic Highlanders held their annual dinner and meeting in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on Friday evening, April 16. This is the oldest and largest of the Maryville College Clubs.

There was a record-breaking attendance of 130. While a majority were from the general Philadelphia area, a considerable number came from as far north as New York City and as far south as Washington and one from as far west as Harrisburg.

The oldest graduates present were Judge Samuel Ward Boardman, Jr., '94, and Roger Sherman Boardman, '96, sons of the fourth president of the College, and Mrs. Mary Carnahan Hill, '99.

President and Mrs. Lloyd were present. President Lloyd spoke concerning the plans for development of alumni clubs, the year's campus events, and the building campaign.

William S. Fahnestock, '38, of Lewistown, Pa., retiring president, presided. There was a full discussion of proposals that because of the constantly increasing number of alumni (now approximately 725 graduates and former students) in the area for which the Atlantic Highlanders has so far been the only Maryville College Club, there be organized clubs in various important centers. The following resolution was adopted:

"That the Atlantic Highlanders proceed to elect officers for the coming year, and encourage the formation of Maryville College Clubs in the various centers of the area."

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Duncan J. Crowley, '36, Penns Grove, New Jersey

Vice President—John B. Taggart, '30, Ambler, Pennsylvania

Secretary-Treasurer (reelected) — Dorothy Leaf Gallant (Mrs. Wayne E.), '37, 6 Court K, Canterbury Apts. Camden, New Jersey

The New Look In Memorial

One of the best advances made this year in the physical equipment of the College was the complete refurnishing of Memorial Hall just after the Christmas vacation.

Through the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Maclellan, Mrs. B. G. Brown, and Mrs. Walter Hoyle, all of Chattanooga, new beds, dressers, and desks were purchased for all rooms in Memorial.

When the fifty-eight girls who live in the building had arrived after the holidays and were on hand to shift their possessions from old to new dresser drawers, the old furniture was moved out and the new furniture was moved in. The new is of a modern light-finish birch and has been pronounced both practical and handsome. Much of the old furniture had been in the building for decades, some of it being home made. An "open house" on the evening of February 28 drew several hundred interested visitors.

Maryville Takes Lead In Improved Curriculum

The new program in Special Studies got under way with the opening of the second semester in January of this year. One hundred and twenty-three juniors are now engaged in this program of work.

Each special-studies student has a faculty supervisor from the faculty in his major field. He meets with this supervisor and together they work out a choice of subject and develop a plan and program of study. Ordinarily they confer at least once a week and the supervisor is especially concerned to see that steady progress is made and a close adherence to plan is maintained.

This program is carried for two semesters, the great majority of the students finishing their work at the end of their first senior semester. The visible product of the work will be a thesis or written report. These reports will all have temporary place in the Library and the ones having superior quality and utility will be kept there permanently.

This special-studies program is the heart of the New Maryville Curriculum. It is thought of as having special value as a means of developing individual initiative in intellectual pursuits, as an occasion for close working association of faculty members and students, and as a practical training for all in the processes of scholarly method. In each student's program this is treated as a full course and he receives course credit for it. The faculty members who supervise this work also count this work as part of their teaching load at the rate of eight special-studies students as the equivalent of one course.

Essentially this new phase is an extension of honors work that was inaugurated at Maryville in 1932. It follows similar programs that have been set up at Princeton University and other well-founded universities. Maryville College is without a doubt a leader among southern colleges in the development of improved curriculum.

Former College Teacher Dies

ALMIRA E. JEWELL

Miss Almira Elizabeth Jewell died at the home of her sister Mrs. Frank R. Bradford (Ruth Jewell) at Benton, Tennessee, March 7, 1948.

Miss Jewell had been a teacher in Maryville College for thirty-four years, from 1911 until her retirement because of failing health in 1945. For thirteen of those years she taught Latin, English, and mathematics in the Preparatory Department. Then for twenty-one years she taught history in the College.

She received the B.A. degree from Maryville College in 1908 and the M.A. degree from the University of Virginia in 1930. She studied also at the University of Tennessee, Peabody College for Teachers, Duke University, and Johns Hopkins University.

Several members of her immediate and related families have been students or teachers at Maryville. Her cousin, Miss Almira C. Bassett, is at present Assistant Professor of Latin.

Miss Jewell will be remembered by eight student generations for her clear Christian faith, her emphasis upon true character, her friendly spirit, her love for teaching, and her loyalty to the College and its ideals.

February Meetings Without A Chapel

In one respect the February Meetings of 1948 were different from any of their predecessors: they were different in setting. The Chapel burned six weeks after the Meetings of 1947. This year the morning services were held in Alumni Gymnasium and the evening services in New Providence Church.

But all worked out remarkably well in view of the situation. The weather was bad, but the attendance and the spirit were good.

Rev. Dr. Clifford E. Barbour, of Knoxville, proved to be a most effective preacher, and Rev. Sidney E. Stringham, of Jackson, Missouri, once more rendered a distinct service as leader of the singing.

The results were marked in decisions and new depth of spiritual life among the nine hundred students who are at the College this year.

DUES ARE JUST ABOUT DUE . . .

Up to the middle of April, only thirty-eight Alumni had paid their dues for 1948-49. The Alumni year ends with the last day of June and most Alumni like to send in their $2 from May to July. That means Alumni dues are just about due . . .

There should be no need to elaborate on rising costs. Suffice it to say that printing costs are sky-high now and represent about one-half of the expenses of this Office. The work of the Alumni Association depends upon your support. Won't you send your check or currency to the Executive Secretary immediately?

Here and There

Faye V. Caldwell has been writing verses, sketches, short stories and nature articles over a period of 40 years. These have been published in newspapers, weeklies, and church magazines. She is an elder in the New Market Presbyterian Church in Tennessee and is very much interested in literary clubs.

Since the death of her husband in August 1947 and her son in November 1947, Mrs. Horace Lee Ellis (Cordelia Young) has been making her home with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Stone, '28, (Ruth Cordelia Ellis, '26) of Shelbyville, Tennessee.

Mrs. R. F. Hill (Mary Gaines Carnahan), after mastering the art of maneuvering a Model T Ford in her county nursing days, is now learning all over again—this time with a 1940 Chevy. She admits she still has to do some "solo driving in my own lane" before she can take her driving test.

1907

Richard C. Samsel is Dean of the Department of Law at La Salle Extension University in Chicago. He has written a text on business law and a number of instruction lectures on various branches of law.

1909

Edward William Lodwick seems to be more active as time goes on. This past year he attended some classes at Oberlin College and has served as Stated Clerk of the Synod of Ohio for a number of years. He has just finished a term as Moderator of the Presbytery of Cleveland. His pastorate is in Seville, Ohio.

1910

James A. Padgett is a research analyst in aviation for the U. S. government.

1912

Ida Grace Stanton recently retired from teaching after 35 years of service, her last position being in Douglas, Arizona, and will spend the fall in Tennessee. Ida is enjoying the luxury of "being lazy" and "am doing whatever pleases me at the moment." She plans to attend the 1948 Homecoming.

1913

George Harley Douglas became pastor of the Congregational Church of Rehoboth, Massachusetts, in October 1947.

Harvey Langill Joslyn is now Superintendent of the Carteret County Schools in Beaufort, North Carolina.

Albert Murray is a consulting television engineer in Washington, D. C., and has had numerous articles on radio and television published in technical journals.

1916

Aletha May Armstrong is a public school music director in the Pi Beta Phi Settlement House in Gatlinburg, Tennessee.

R. W. Carver took advantage of state retirement after 31 years of service as Superintendent of Schools in Hickory, North Carolina. However, in his words, "I retired and got tired . . . and am now working at three positions: dean of a business college, construction, and the mercantile business."

Keith T. Postelthwaite received an M.Th. from Princeton Theological Seminary in May 1947. He is now pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Ocean City, Maryland.

1917

Frances Elizabeth Akerstrom took up her work again last year as social worker for the Guilford County Welfare Department in Greensboro, North Carolina.

1919

Harold H. Greer was apointed Superintendent of the West Fabricating Division of the Alcoa Works in October 1947. His wife (Elizabeth Hyder Greer, '29), who is editor of the Maryville Enterprise, was elected to the Tennessee Women's Press and Author's Club at its annual meeting in November 1947.

Mrs. J. H. Webb (Mary Celeste Moseley), who is teaching mathematics in Frostproof, Florida, is also working on an "advance diploma of specialization" in the teaching of mathematics at the Colorado State College of Education. She hopes to receive her diploma in August.

1920

Mildred Campbell, who received her Ph.D. from Yale in 1932 and is now teaching at Vassar College, last year served at editor of the Classics Club edition of Sir Thomas More's Utopia which was published by Walter Black of New York.

1921

Dewey M. Beck, who is now Director of Public Relations for the Illinois Bankers Association in Chicago, visited the campus last June.

1922

Julia Lynn Anderson is now retired after 20 years of teaching in Hamilton County, Tennessee.

Forrest and Mary Brown (Mary Dorothy Stivers, '24) visited with Ethel Doctor, '22, during their stay in Oaxaco, Mexico, some months ago. Ethel has been a missionary there since 1923 and "is doing a wonderful piece of work." The Browns are in College Park, Pennsylvania.

Percy Wilson Buchanan returned from Japan in 1946 where he had been serving as head of the Counter-Intelligence Training Division, and completed his work for a Ph.D. degree at Princeton in 1947. Since that time he has been Professor of Far Eastern History and Director of the Institute of Asiatic Affairs at the University of Colorado. He is also serving as university pastor.

Mrs. Reed S. Drummond (Ruth Allen) recently had several pamphlets on medical technology published. She is registrar of medical technologists of the American Society of Clinical Pathologists.

Lilah Hembree, who is now County Home Demonstration Agent in La Grange, Kentucky, was awarded a certificate of award for distinguished services at the National Home Demonstration Agents Association in Chicago.

Robert Benjamin Houston has resigned from his present work with the State Department of Education to become a member of the Tennessee Equipment and Supply Company in Nashville.

James Lambert Jackson is now pastor of the Southside Estates and Mayport Presbyterian Churches in Florida.

Mrs. Ralph Kesselring (Florence Emilie Kleinhenn), her husband and three daughters, have returned to Malaya for five years where they will again take up their youth guidance work.

Howard H. Sullinger is now Deputy Solicitor of the Tenth Judicial Circuit of Alabama.

Porter H. Turner is now Assistant General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Cincinnati.

SUMMER ON THE HILL

At this writing there are three Presbyterian Church events scheduled for the Maryville campus this summer: (1) Senior Westminster Fellowship Conference—June 8-15; (2) Synod, Synodical Society, and Westminster Fellowship of the Synod of Mid-South—June 22-25; (3) Junior High Westminster Fellowship Conference—June 28-July 3. One or two other events are pending.

There will be no summer school. But the offices, library, and maintenance program will be operating all summer. As usual a schedule of painting and repairs will be carried through while students are away. And there are always the evergrowing grass to mow and the dairy cows to milk.

O. Paul Armstrong is a school principal in Highland Park, Michigan.

James N. Hardin, State Commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars (Tennessee), announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Governor in the August primary. Mr. Hardin, a Greeneville attorney, served as secretary to former Governor Prentice Cooper from 1939 to 1943 at which time he entered the Army. He served as a major in military government in the European theater.

COLLEGE ATHLETICS

Maryville enjoyed quite a successful fall and winter in the field of sports. Although this write-up does not include life-saving, women's point system, and the myriad of other sports events on the College program throughout the year, it does give a concise picture of the major events on the sports calendar. The sports staff of the Echo should be given credit for the following tabulations:

Football

The Highlander football squad came from behind a 13-7 defeat in the second game of the '47 season to remain undefeated throughout the remainder of the season. The big game of the year found the Scots fighting their way to a thrilling tie with the big, bad Eagles from Carson-Newman. In the final game on their home field, Coach Honaker's gridders matched drive for drive and pass for pass to leave the scoreboard Carson-Newman 7, Maryville College 7.

The single defeat came on the first away game on Tennessee Polytech's field at Cookeville. It was Coach Honaker's first absence on account of illness in his 32 years of coaching. The Scots held the game on even terms until after the first half, when a couple of Tech passes provided the victory. Maryville's score came later on a blocked punt.

Three undefeated teams—Sewanee, Middle Tennessee State, and Carson-Newman—felt the weight of the Scot attack. This attack was powered by the crashing drives of Hershell Merriman, the quarterbacking of King Berrong and big Dave Clark, the speed of tailbacks Leon Berrong and Bill Fogarty, and the fleetness of wingback Allen Law.

Up front Maryville had 6 foot 4 inch Bob "Pie" Garner, who has received Little All-American mention at center. Captain Ronald "Cotton" Easter from Louden and Lloyd Anderson from Philadelphia held down the guard spots. Alan Rock, brother of Les, '43, and captain-elect, for 1948, and Fred Kluth, co-captain-elect, worked hard as tackles. At the ends, co-captain Ken Talbott and Frank Still finished their last season as Orange and Garnet performers. Both boys were especially good on offense.

After the 34-0 defeat the Highlanders landed on Sewanee—their worst defeat in 35 years—a United Press writer dubbed the Scots as "true Tennessee Giant Killers." It was then that the Scottie "Giant Killers" polished off Middle Tennessee State, the only undefeated, untied eleven in the state at that time. But the climax remained for the annual Carson-Newman - Maryville game, and the Scotties deadlocked the score to make it the first tie score in the 22 clashes of the teams since 1903.

Although Maryville was approached about playing a post-season game at Knoxville as a benefit game for Kerbela Temple Shrine, the game did not become a reality because of the late date at which the officials attempted to choose the participants. The complete schedule follows:

Maryville	33	Hiwassee	0
Maryville	7	Tenn. Poly. Inst.	13
Maryville	27	Centre	0
Maryville	31	East Tenn. State	6
Maryville	24	Emory and Henry	7
Maryville	34	Sewanee	0
Maryville	13	Middle Tenn. State	6
Maryville	7	Carson-Newman	7
Maryville	20	Tusculum	0

Basketball

Maryville's basketball quint went through a strenuous 22-game season with varied competition and won 13, lost 9. Among the teams the Scottie cagers played were Western Kentucky State's Hilltoppers, who walloped Maryville 77-37, the same Hilltoppers who climaxed their season in Madison Square Garden as semi-finalists in the NCAA tournament in March.

Captain Ray Lillard of Maryville finished his fourth year on the Scot five with a 10.2 average in points-per-game. Top scorer of the season was sophomore Bobby Boring of Friendsville with an average of 10.7. Boring's calm foul shooting provided Maryville with its 34-32 victory over Carson-Newman in the closest and sweetest game of the year.

Other standouts for Maryville were Hugh Hamil, guard from Friendsville; Bob Garner, lanky center; Gene Reynolds, speedy foward; and Brick Brahams, six foot four one-arm-shot specialist from California.

A list of the five top opponents for the season would probably come in this order: (1) Western Kentucky State (2) Lambuth College (with 49-36, 58-54 victories over the Scots) (3) Lincoln Memorial University (1st game 62-57 for Maryville; 2nd game 79-56 for LMU) (4) East Tennessee State (1st game 43-36 for Maryville; 2nd game 85-82 - overtime - for ETS) (5) Carson-Newman (1st game 40-36 for C-N; 2nd game 34-32 for MC).

Wrestling

Wrestling as usual grabbed a big spotlight in Scottie sports this year. The gym was packed every match to see Coach "J. D." Davis' "rasslers" floor four teams, tie three and lose to three. The season opened before Christmas with the University of Chattanooga on December 13. Maryville took the Moc grunters 18-11. After trimming the Knoxville Y 31-5 at the start of the second semester, the Scots tied Georgia Tech in one of the hardest-fought matches of the season. Appalachian State Teachers, Southern Champs last year, then took the Highlander matmen for a ride 25-8 on February 7.

The Maryville matmen downed Western North Carolina 29-5 and the "B" team tied Knoxville Y 16-16. The University of Chattanooga invaded the Scotties' home for the final home match of the season, and took home a tie. The Scots then hit the road and fell before the highly-touted Auburn Plainsmen 5-26. Little Western North Carolina again fell to Scot talent, 24-5; but Georgia Tech's Yellow Jackets, angered by their earlier defeat, earned revenge by trimming the Scotties 17-10 in the final dual match of the season.

Special mention should go to the team for their efforts in the Southeastern Invitational Tournament held in Chattanooga on March 5 and 6. The Scots won second place; Auburn earned first. Four Maryville grapplers went to the finals: J. A. Cameron, 128 pound freshman from Elizabeth, New Jersey; "Tubby" Callaway, 145 pound sophomore from Maryville; Hersh Merriman, 165 pound sophomore who made fame as a fullback last season; and Herb Palmer, 175 pound frosh from Kenilworth, New Jersey. Palmer won first place in his class and the other three men won seconds.

Captain of the team this year was Ken Ross, a senior from Long Island who has been wrestling at Maryville (off and on) since 1940. Next year's captain, by lettermen vote, will be Henry Callaway, Jr. Ten men were awarded wrestling letters.

Spring Sports

Spring has arrived on "The Hill". From behind the swimming pool comes the crack of a well-hit baseball; from the tennis courts the soft thud of ball on racket and the sound of the fans cheering another love set or good placement; on the football field, the usual chatter from perspiring gridiron hopefuls polishing off their spring training; and from elsewhere comes news of the track team at the Milligan Relays. The rest of the campus is literally agog with sports, intramural or otherwise. Softball, golf, tennis, track, swimming, skating, archery, and hiking all have their adherents among the student body and faculty.

Baseball

Coach Lombe Honaker's nine opened its season on the home diamond April 6 against the Tigers from Hiwassee College, only to be rained out before a 2-2 tie could be broken. Later on April 10, the season made its official start as the Scots split a doubleheader with Western North Carolina Teachers, 4-6, and 5-4. Hiwassee came back to surprise the Scots in their next meeting on April 13 in Madisonville, the final score being 6-2 for the Tigers.

The schedule follows:

April	6	Hiwassee (Home) 2-2 and the rains came
	10	Western North Carolina (Home-2) 4-6, 5-4
	13	Hiwassee (Madisonville) 2-6
	16	T. P. I. (Home) 7-6
	19	East Tennessee State (Home) 6-2
	21	Wofford College (Spartanburg, S. C.) 8-7
	22	Newberry College (Newberry, S. C.) 8-0
	23	Erskine College (Due West, S. C.) 4-8
	26	Lincoln Memorial University (Home) 15-1
	27	Western N. C. (Cullowhee, N. C.) 10-8, 5-3
	30	T. P. I. (Cookeville) 3-14
May	1	Emory and Henry (Home) 8-9
	4	Lincoln Memorial University (Harrogate)
	5	University of Tennessee (Knoxville)
	7	Milligan College (Home)
	10	Emory and Henry (Emory, Va.)
	11	East Tennessee State (Johnson City)
	17	University of Tennessee (Home)

Coach Honaker reports that he still has keen competition for starting berths on his nine but lists the regular squad to date as follows: Pitchers—Leon Berrong, Ray Lillard, Ross Honaker; Catchers—Gene Reynolds, Jim Baird; First base—Woody Thomas; second—King Berrong; Shortstop—Bob Boring; Third—Jack Buckley; Outfielders—Hugh Hamil, Benny Baldwin, Al Rock, Bobby Neff and Artie Spears.

Tennis

Rain has also hampered the tennis schedule, postponing the first match with Tennessee Wesleyan on April 7. The season opened two days later with the Scotties dropping a close match to the University of Chattanooga 5-4. Ken Johnson, a new member of the Maryville coaching staff, is drilling his netmen hard for the 7 or 8 remaining matches. The players are all fairly even in ability and the ranking at presstime is as follows: number one, Bill Dinges, senior; number two, Bill Lawrence, frosh from Washington, D. C.; number three, Wesley Miles, frosh from Long Island; number four, Fred Waggoner from Maryville; number five, Bill Uthlaut, freshman from Florida; number six, Chesley Anderson, freshman from Maryville; number seven, Glen Knecht, sophomore from New York; and number eight, Carl Murray, senior from Maryville.

The schedule follows:

April	9	University of Chattanooga (Home) 4-5
	12	Tennessee Wesleyan (Athens) 3-4
	13	East Tennessee State (Johnson City) 2-6
	16	Milligan (Johnson City) 3-6
	20	Tusculum (Home) 5-4
	24	Tusculum (Greenville) 2-5
	26	Lincoln Memorial (Home) 6-3
	27	East Tennessee State (Home) 2-7
May	4	University of Chattanooga (Chattanooga)
	5	Lincoln Memorial (Harrogate)
	8	Tennessee Wesleyan (Home)

Track

The thin-clads opened their schedule at the Milligan Relays on April 17 at Johnson City, there to compete against Tusculum, East Tennessee State, Milligan, U. T. Frosh, Roanoke, Emory and Henry, Mars Hill and Hiwassee.

Lack of track facilities and material have hampered the development of a well-rounded track team at Maryville this year but Coach Davis reports about a dozen stalwarts who have been training regularly for the State Meet to be held at Sewance on May 8th. Cindermen are Walter English, freshman; Jim Thurston, freshman; Bob Kay, sophomore; John Baird, sophomore; Bill Houdeshel, junior, and Paul Kidder, freshman from Maryland; Sid Lambert, freshman; George Robarts from Miami Beach; Alan Kiger, sophomore and son of Professor J. H. Kiger of Maryville; George Gillette, senior from New Jersey; and Charles Mabry, frosh from Morristown, Tennessee.

ATTENTION: ALL NEW ENGLANDERS!

All New Englanders who are interested in forming some sort of Alumni Club in their section of the country are asked to contact Mr. Lincoln Johnson, '38. His address is Hawthorne Road, Holden, Massachusetts.

DEATHS

Lura Jane Lyle, '90, died on January 26, 1948, after a long illness. Her father, William Harris Lyle, served as Chairman of the Board of Directors from 1890 to 1905. Her brother, Hubert S. Lyle, was a former professor at the College and a former pastor of New Providence Presbyterian Church.

Rev. Dr. Frank J. Milman, '96, died on December 13, 1947, in St. Barnabas' Hospital following a heart attack suffered at his home in Newark, New Jersey. He was 77. His last active pastorate was one of twenty years at Smith Street Presbyterian Church, Jersey City. Dr. Milman attended Maryville College, Colgate University, and Allegheny Theological Seminary.

Mrs. John Ott (Jessie Chandler, '98) died at her home in Maryville on August 29, 1947. Her daughter, Miss Helen Ott, graduated from Maryville in 1922.

Reuben Powel, '98, died on June 23, 1944 (just reported) at the age of 65. He and his wife (Maude Kemmer of Grassy Cove, Tennessee) made their home in Cumberland County, Tennessee, for 44 years. Mr. Powel was a crop and stock farmer and served many useful terms in county and civic offices.

Almira Elizabeth Jewell, '08, March 7, 1948. (See item elsewhere in this issue)

Ruth E. Parker, '17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Boyd Parker of Knoxville, died on March 1, 1948. Mr. Parker, a veteran teacher at Knoxville High School, was also a graduate of the College, in the class of '96.

Charles F. Ellis, '23, died on November 22, 1947, at his home in Knoxville. Mr. Ellis was the son of Professor Horace Lee Ellis, Librarian at the College for twenty years, who died only last August. He is survived by his mother, Cordelia Young Ellis, '98; his wife, Virginia Moody Ellis; two children; and two sisters, Mrs. John Stone (Ruth Cordelia Ellis, '26) and Mrs. William Blough of Shelbyville.

Mrs. Charles W. Muir (Helen Crowder, '32) died on November 30, 1947. Among her survivors are her husband, Rev. Charles W. Muir, '33, pastor of a church in Findlay, Ohio; her son, Philip, age 11; and her brother, Dr. W. C. Crowder '28, of Maryville. Mrs. Muir taught at the College for a short time during the war.

Richard A. Cline, '44, died on December 28, 1947. Dick, a Lt. Col. in the U.S. Air Corps, was killed in a mid-air airplane collision over Honshu Island, Japan, while his squadron was saluting an Australian unit. He was stationed in Korea as director of training at an air base. He leaves his wife, Judy Bryant Cline, and a one-year-old daughter of Miami, Florida. He attended Maryville in 1941 prior to entering the Air Corps. His sister, Louise Cline Hollister, '33, and his sister-in-law, Anna Mae Justus Cline, '38, are both living in Florida.

Although not a Maryville College student, Mrs. G. D. LeQuire was well known to many Maryville College students. She was the mother of four Maryville graduates: Chester Brickey, '27; Paul Dexter, '35; Susanna Faye, '31 (now Mrs. John Kenst); and Virgil Shields, '43. Her husband, Dr. G. D. LeQuire, is Chief of Staff of the Blount Memorial Hospital in Maryville and gives his time regularly as one of the college physicians. Their home on the corner of Court and Goddard Strees was many times open to Maryville College students. Mrs. LeQuire died at her home on February 27, 1948.

1948 Grad To Receive Fred Hope Fund Backing

The annual appeal for the Fred Hope Fund was made in December and resulted in gifts and pledges totaling $1,505.35.

During the lifetime of Fred Hope the money contributed each year was allocated for his use in West Africa. Two years ago he died, only a few months after his retirement. Before he died he consented to allow the College to retain his name for a missionary fund to be raised as might seem wise, and he joined in the idea that the Fund, which had been raised originally in his student days for China and then sent to him in Africa for nearly forty years, might well be rotated among different Presbyterian mission fields, beginning again in China.

Thus the Fred Hope Fund of 1946-1947, totaling $1,400, was sent through the Presbyterian (USA) Board of Foreign Missions to the School of Gentleness (for girls) in Peking, China. It is being used for the development of a religious center or court in the school. The supervisor of the Presbyterian missionary work in that area is the Rev. Wallace C. Merwin, who was a student in Maryville College for two years between 1923 and 1927.

Recently the Faculty set up a Fred Hope Fund Board, composed of the six Officers of Administration of the College and the four students who are the Presidents of the Y.W.C.A., Y.M.C.A., Student Volunteers, and Student Council. This Board is to have general management of the Fund.

The Board has allocated the Fund of this year to China again and has approved its use for the support of a new missionary to be sent out from the present Maryville senior class. It has promised the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions that $1,500 will be provided in each of the next two years to finance this missionary.

Miss Mary Edna Smith, of Grove City, Pennsylvania, a senior, has volunteered to go and has been approved by the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, the Faculty of the College, and the Fred Hope Fund Board. It is expected that she will go out this coming summer to teach in one of the Christian schools in China.

New Recreation Hall To Be Ready For Use In Fall

Work was recently begun on two additional temporary buidings allotted to Maryville College by the Federal Works Agency under its Veterans Facilities Program. These buildings, one of which will be used for music practice rooms, the other for a recreation center, will be constructed from government surplus materials. They will be built at no cost to the College other than that of preparing the sites and bringing utilities to the buildings.

The music building will be 21 by 60 feet in size and will contain sixteen small practice rooms. It will be built as a wing to the present temporary building constructed last spring between Anderson Hall and the varsity tennis courts. Specifications include sound proofing the partitions. Completion of this building will relieve the shortage of practice rooms occasioned by the loss of the Chapel.

The recreation building will contain 2400 square feet of floor space and will be located across the road from the swiming pool, near the football bleachers. The building will contain an office, storeroom, refreshment stand, and two recreation rooms approximately 22 by 46 feet. It will serve as a center for the student social and recreational program.

Both buildings will be of frame construction on concrete-block foundations. They will make a total of four buildings received by the College under the Veterans Facilities Program. The other two, an office building and a supplementary gymnasium, were completed last spring. Both have proved most useful, the office building having been used temporarily for music practice rooms.

CONSTITUTIONALLY SPEAKING . . .

What is an Alumnus?

There is no outright definition of such an "animal" in the Maryville College Alumni Association's By-Laws. Prevailing customs throughout the country makes any graduate and former student who has attended for at least one year eligible for membership in his college's alumni association. That provision can be found in our own By-Laws.

But do we practice the same? Are graduates and former students considered alike? Not exactly, but the trend has been in that direction. The Alumni Office desires to take a stand on the point and to go on record so that all concerned may know what their relationship to the Alumni Association is.

Mailings, including two copies of the Alumni Bulletin per year, are sent to all graduates and former students for whom the Office has usable addresses. Both graduates and former students are eligible for membership in chapters of the Alumni Association. Any grad or ex-student may be elected to hold an office in a Maryville College club. But only graduates may hold office in the Alumni Association as a whole. That is stated in section two, article five, of the Alumni Association's By-Laws.

As may be noticed in this issue of the Bulletin, all designations of graduate or former students have been purposely omitted. No distinction whatever has been made beteween the graduate and the former students (formerly listed as Ex. '36, etc.). The Office would like your reaction to this practice. Why not drop a line to the Alumni Office and let us know your ideas on the subject.

How Can We Form a Club?

A club may be registered as a branch of the Association whenever there are ten graduates who are actively interested in such an organization. All students who have attended the College at least one year are encouraged to become members.

Alumni who desire to organize such a chapter of the Alumni Association can write to the Executive Secretary for area lists and other organizational material. Secretaries are urged to submit regular reports of elections, membership, and activities to the Alumni Office at the College.
